SPECIFIC COMMENTS TO AUTHORS

Dear editor, I am pleased to review the submitted paper entitled "Expandable endoprostheses in skeletally immature patients: where we are" The present paper reviewed improvement of extendable endoprosthesis replacements over the years and the comparison between noninvasive prostheses and minimally invasive expandable prostheses. In my opinion the content is original, current, objective and persuasive. But there are some questions need to be address: 1.Please kindly divide maintext to different sections such as noninvasive prostheses; minimally invasive expandable prostheses; expandable joint; expandable nails; complications. 2.Please provide illustrations of different prostheses. 3.Please summarize the studies into a table.
