

ANSWERING REVIEWERS

September, 20th, 2014

Dear Editor,

We are pleased to hear that our manuscript has been reviewed and it can be considered for publication.

We are also very grateful to the referees since we believe that the changes we have introduced in response to their suggestions have improved the manuscript in the enclosed final form. Please find below all the modifications done. Regarding to the English correction by a native English speaker, we would like to add an acknowledgment to Mr. Michael Fink, Senior Lecturer in Surgery at the University of Melbourne, Australia, who performed a meticulous revision of all the minor changes in the paper.

We hope that after evaluating our revision, you will find that we have dealt successfully with all issues raised by the reviewers and that the manuscript is now acceptable for publication
