

Name of journal: World Journal of Clinical Cases

ESPS Manuscript NO: 14768

Columns: MINIREVIEW

Bleeding and clotting in hereditary hemorrhagic telangiectasia

Christopher Dittus, Michael Streiff, Jack Ansell

Conflict-of-interest: Dr. Dittus has no conflicts to report. Dr. Streiff has received research funding from Sanofi-Aventis, Bristol Myers Squibb and Portola, honoraria for CME lectures from Sanofi-Aventis and Ortho-McNeil, consulted for Sanofi-Aventis, Eisai, Daiichi-Sankyo, Boehringer-Ingelheim and Janssen HealthCare and has given expert witness testimony in various medical malpractice cases. Dr. Ansell serves as a consultant for Bristol Myers Squibb, Janssen, Boehringer Ingelheim, Pfizer, and Daiichi Sankyo Pharmaceuticals.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'Chris Dittus', with a stylized flourish at the end.

Christopher Dittus, D.O.