Policy on manuscripts submitted by non-native speakers of English

For manuscripts submitted by non-native speakers of English, the author(s) must seek to make use of a copyediting service provided by professional English language editing companies. The English language editing company you have chosen must send a recommendation letter, in which the manuscript code should be specified, e.g., Ms: wjg-2011-029867, to us via e-mail: s.x.gou@wignet.com. Please pay attention to detail since only one opportunity for revision will be allowed. We only accept manuscripts edited by the following English language editing companies:

American Journal Experts: <http://www.journalexperts.com/>

Biomeditor: <http://www.biomeditor.com/>

BioScience Writers: <http://www.biosciencewriters.com/>

Boston BioEdit: <http://www.bostonbioedit.com/>

English Manager Science Editing: <http://www.sciencemanager.com/>

ESE - English Science Editing: <http://www.englishscience.com/>

International Science Editing: <http://www.internationalscienceediting.com/>

SquirrelScribe.com: <http://www.squirrelscribe.com/>

Write Science Right: <http://www.writescienceright.com/>

Note: If you believe that the language of your manuscript has reached or exceeded Grade B and would like to sign a guarantee, you can choose not to have your manuscript edited by the above English language editing companies. However, if we later find that the language of your manuscript has not reached Grade B, your paper will be rejected.

The manuscript was edited and revised by a native English expert, Dr. Yingzi Cong.
