Dear Editor,

Please find enclosed the edited manuscript in Word format (file name: Schwertz C. Eurytrematosis Brazil).

Title: Eurytrematosis: an emerging and neglected disease in South Brazil

Author: Claiton I. Schwertz, Neuber J. Lucca, Aleksandro S. da Silva, Piotr Baska, Gustavo Bonetto, Mateus E. Gabriel, Fábio Centofanti, Ricardo E. Mendes

Name of Journal: World Journal of Experimental Medicine

ESPS Manuscript NO: 16789

The manuscript has been improved according to the suggestions of reviewers:

1. Article from Bassani et al. (2006) was added and discussed.
2. Suggested language changes in abstracts and text were done.
3. Two Australians have proofreading the article. One is an English teacher and the other a post-doc student in veterinary parasitology.
4. An immunopathology study is going to be done in samples of parasited cattle. This manuscript is an editorial, with comments on an important topic, as well as, the future direction our group is taking to promote and develop the knowledge of Eurytrematosis. When completed, an article on immunopathology will be prepared and submitted.
5. We are submitting a decomposable figure entitled "Figure 1".
6. The PubMed citation numbers and DOI citation were added to references. A great part of the references does not have PMID or DOI. Therefore, we are submitting the required copy of the first pages of the full reference as Supplementary Material.

Thank you again for publishing our manuscript in the World Journal of Experimental Medicine

Sincerely yours,

Ricardo E. Mendes
