

Institutional Review Board (IRB) statement

For case report, the Italian legislation requires patients have to consent to diffusion of personal data and health records. No further authorization is required nor approval from LEC (Local Ethic Committee).