Dear Sir,

Please find attached our revised manuscript

Individualized treatment of gastric cancer: impact of molecular biology and pathohistological features

In accordance to the reviewer's advice we made the following changes:

1. The language style has been revised as discussed. These corrections are not highlighted in the manuscript for easy access.
2. Running title, author contributions and conflict-of-interest statement have been inserted and are highlighted with dark blue color.
3. The citation style has been adapted by using the "World Journal of Gastroenterology" output style.

We would be most grateful if you were to consider our manuscript for publication in your esteemed journal.

Please do not hesitate to contact me in case of any further questions.

Sincerely yours

Yves Dittmar
