Dear Editor

We have the pleasure to submit our revised manuscript entitled: "Mesenteric ischemia: pathogenesis and challenging diagnostic and therapeutic modalities" to your distinguished journal for publication as an invited article with specific ID number 00183086. We would like to state the significance and uniqueness of this work in the authors view. We consider our work as an original clinical contribution not previously published or submitted in any other journal. All authors contributed significantly in all stages of this work, they have read and approved the revised manuscript and confirm that no conflict of interest exists. Furthermore, no benefits in any form have been received or will be received from a commercial party related directly or indirectly to the subject of this article.

We would also like to inform you that we took into thoughtful consideration all the reviewers' constructive suggestions. We are able to report the following revisions:

1. With regard to your first remark we would like to mention that additional reference of the first sentence of Introduction has been included.
2. In accordance with your recommendation grammatical error on page 4, line 2 has been corrected (0.1% instead of 0,1%).

Please do not hesitate to contact us (corresponding author: Aikaterini Mastoraki) if you need any further information. We are looking forward to your response.

Kindest regards

We would also like to inform you that we took into thoughtful consideration all the reviewers' constructive suggestions. With regard to your first remark we would like to mention that the following grammatical and spelling errors have been corrected.

1. Takayasu instead of Takayashu disease
2. Thromboangiitis instead of thrombangiitis
3. Revascularization instead of vasculization
4. Fluorescein instead of fluroscein
5. Infarction instead of infraction

Finally, we would like to mention that the revised manuscript has been reviewed by someone with expertise in English language and grammar.

Please do not hesitate to contact us (corresponding author: Aikaterini Mastoraki) if you need any further clarification. We are looking forward to your response.
