Dear Editor,

We believe that the language of the above-mentioned manuscript has reached Grade A, two out of the three reviewers graded our manuscript as Grade A language (priority publishing) and one pointed out some minor considerations. Following this evaluation we decided to get our work corrected by a native speaker. Therefore, we choose not to have our manuscript edited by the given English language editing companies and we would like to sign a guarantee for the quality of the written language.

The Native Speaker:

Amanda Whiting

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "A. M. Whiting". The signature is written in a cursive style with a long horizontal flourish at the end of the word "Whiting".

Best regards,

On behalf of the authors;

Jorge André Gomes Lopes
