To whom ever it may concern

This is to certify that I have gone through the article titled “Gallic acid induced apoptotic events in HCT-15 colon cancer cells” authored by Subramanian AP, Jaganathan SK, Mandal M, Supriyanto E , Muhamad II. As well as the article is free from grammatical errors after the correction.

Morag O'Neill

A handwritten signature in black ink, reading "Morag O'Neill". The signature is written in a cursive, flowing style. The first name "Morag" is written in a larger, more prominent script, and the last name "O'Neill" follows it in a similar but slightly smaller script.
