ESPS Manuscript NO: 23086

Manuscript Type: FIELD OF VISION

Dear Editor,

We completed our revision according to the valuable suggestions of the reviewers. We omitted the repetitions, and the manuscript was shorten as 30%. We believe now it is more readable and understandable. We explained our reasons to change our surgical technic in time. We explained the most common difficulties with the previous technique in our experience. The reasons of division of the gastroduodenal artery were mentioned as well.
