Dear Dr. Montella:

This is to certify that I, representing International Medical Editing Service LLC, have personally edited your paper, titled, "Hepatocellular carcinoma: Will novel targeted drugs really impact the future?"

I have edited it thoroughly for English grammar, syntax, and construction.

Thank you for inviting IMES to edit your important paper. I anticipate it will encounter no criticism from the referees for English grammar editing, and I look forward to it being published soon.

Sincerely,

William R. Brown, M.D.

Director, International Medical Editing Service
