

Dear Editors,

Enclosed is the informed biostatistics statement for our manuscript titled: "Colonic ulcerations may predict steroid-refractory course in patients with ipilimumab-mediated enterocolitis".

Biostatistics Statement: This study employed simple descriptive statistics for the data analysis. Hence, an outside biostatistician was not enlisted for this study.

Sincerely,
