

Institutional review board statement:

The prospective maintenance of a database of operative procedures is considered part of routine clinical governance. This database has been used in line with local information governance policy.