

Responses to the Editor and reviewer' Comments

Thank you for your encouraging letter about our submitted manuscript entitled “Pancreatic imaging: current status of clinical practices and small animal studies” (Submission 35432).

We would like to express our gratitude to you and the reviewer for your overall positive evaluation. The manuscript has been modified according to the Guidelines and Requirements for Manuscript Revision-Minireview, changes in text are highlighted with red color.

We hope that this revised version should meet the requirements for World Journal of Methodology, and look forward to its timely on-line publication.
