

Informed consent document.

We are requesting a waiver for this document for the following reasons:

This observational study did not include any direct intervention and all the participants participated voluntarily after they were invited during a previous presentation and after they were reminded that their participation was voluntary before questionnaires were administered, thus this study represented minimal risk for the participants.

The authors