A balloon dilator controls massive bleeding during endoscopic ultrasound-guided drainage for pancreatic pseudocyst

Wang BH et al. A balloon dilator controls bleeding

Bao-Hua Wang, Li-Ting Xie, Qi-Yu Zhao, Hua-Jie Ying, Tian-An Jiang

Abstract

Pancreatic pseudocyst (PPC), a common sequela of acute or chronic pancreatitis, was defined by the revised Atlanta classification as "a collection". Endoscopic ultrasound (EUS)-guided drainage is often considered a standard first-line therapy for patients with symptomatic PPC. This effective approach
