Reviewer#1(Reviewer's code: 02472076):

This is a well-written descriptive paper on the health behaviors of Koreans in Korea with chronic hepatitis B. The authors addressed all points carefully. The findings indicate a high prevalence of unhealthy habits among those with chronic HBV. This study is important in documenting the importance of addressing the importance of healthier habits for those with chronic HBV. The authors carefully highlight the strengths and limitations of the study.

Classification: Grade A (Excellent)

Language Evaluation: Grade A: Priority publishing

Conclusion: Accept

Response: We thank the reviewer for his/her kind comments. As reviewer has not suggested any revision, we have not highlighted any changes in the revised manuscript.
