SPECIFIC COMMENTS TO AUTHORS

This manuscript deals with a timely and relevant issue, namely the biology of platelets with regard to miRNA regulatory functions. Presenting this short survey of the pertinent literature in order to raise awareness of the importance of the issues discussed therein is appropriate for an Editorial. Having said that, I must point out that the manuscript

SPECIFIC COMMENTS TO AUTHORS

The minireview y Pedro Redondo about the role of miRNA in megakaryocytes and platelet biology is a well written, up-dated and comprehensive article. References should have all the same style. Many of them do not have the title of the article, please unify all references. Please, correct grammatical errors.
