Dr. Donald W Bowden
Editor-in-Chief, World Journal of Diabetes

Dear Dr. Bowden:

The manuscript titled "Comparison between sitagliptin and nateglinide on postprandial lipid levels: the STANDARD study" by Kojima et al. has been edited by an Australian physician to improve the English. We are asking that it be considered for your journal due to its interesting findings, which your readers would find both useful and informative.

Your advice in this matter would be deeply appreciated.

Yours sincerely,
