Dear Editor,

This letter is to certify that manuscript # 41753 by Wiernek et al has been extensively and carefully revised according to English language by native English speaker and one of the co-author, Dr. Gustafson. Dr. Gustafson is not only a native English speaker, he also graduated from Yale University with a degree of English Literacy and Philosophy before his Columbia University medical degree. Dr. Gustafson has carefully read and edited the manuscript, with focus on English language as well cardiology.

Thanks you for consideration! Please feel free to contact me if you need further information.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'X Dai', with a stylized flourish at the end.
