

Dear editor in chief,

I, Dr. Lupita Ruiz-Jones certify to have reviewed the scientific article entitled: “Diversity of Saccharomyces boulardii CNCM I-745 mechanisms of action against intestinal infections” authored by Patrick Rampal and Dorota Czerucka and submitted for publication in the journal World Journal of Gastroenterology.

My mother tongue is English and as a scientist myself I am well acquainted with the formulation and presentation of scientific reports.

After my revision, I consider this scientific report to have reached Grade A in English level and being appropriate for submission in your journal.

Best regards,
