

Answering Reviewers

Dear Editor at World Journal of Diabetes,

Thank you for the review of our manuscript. We kindly thank the reviewer for taking the time to comment on our manuscript and have carefully considered their comment. Below is our detailed response to the comments made by the reviewer:

- Reviewer 1 (03086186): Thank you for your thoughtful comments. Our article was designed in order to review the currently available literary data on diabetes mellitus and inflammation, with focus on the role of antidiabetic treatment.

With kind regards,

Athanasia Papazafiropoulou, MD, MSc, PhD
