SPECIFIC COMMENTS TO AUTHORS

Dear Sir, Even though your manuscript theme is interesting and it simplifies some important points regarding the method to evaluate the success of a surgical procedure, it seems that you are making this analysis too simple. I think that you must mention how was the historical evolution of the methodology for evaluating the post-op complications. As well as you should add a table comparing the different aspects evaluated from your 3 scales. Hope you could return your comments and tables as soon as possible. Thank you very much for considering the Journal, and hope to hear from you soon Sincerely
