Biostatistical Analysis of the Simethicone Study- A Randomized Controlled Trial

This is to inform you that, I performed the statistical analysis of the above study, using the statistical software, Stata version 14.2 (StataCorp, College Station, TX, USA). I am a graduate of the Johns Hopkins University, Bloomberg School of Public Health, Baltimore, USA, where I obtained my Masters of Public Health (MPH), with concentration in Epidemiology and Biostatistics.

I certified that, all analysis were thoroughly checked, and are accurate.

Sincerely,

Mark B Ulanja, MD MPH (epidemiology & Biostatistics).
