SPECIFIC COMMENTS TO AUTHORS

The authors present practice guidelines and a review of recent developments on colorectal cancer screening in inflammatory bowel disease in a very organized and useful paper for clinicians who deal with those patients. I have no suggestions for

SPECIFIC COMMENTS TO AUTHORS

This is a well-written manuscript addressing an interesting issue. I have only minor comments: 1) Title: please consider if the term "surveillance" might be more appropriate in place of "screening" 2) Table 1 shows that different surveillance intervals are recommended; the issue is not addressed in the text and might be presented in a short paragraph 3) Although within the text there is some implicit comparison between high and standard definition colonoscopy, a short paragraph formally addressing this issue might be of help to readers 4) There a few typos to correct: e.g. page 9, first line (word “improved” repeated two timed); page 11 fifth line “in many cases” instead of “it many cases”

SPECIFIC COMMENTS TO AUTHORS

Generally well-written and concise view. One minor comments 1. IBD is a risk factor for CRC, thus Surveillance for colorectal cancer in IBD patients is better than "Colorectal cancer screening in inflammatory bowel disease" What about change the title? Thanks
