

In response to Editors:

Science Editor: Issues raised:

- (1) The authors need to fill out the CARE checklist form with page number.
- (2) The title was more than 12 words.
- (3) The original figures are needed
- (4) The reference numbers will be superscripted in square brackets
- (5) The authors need to provide an editable manuscript

Response: Thank you very much for your kind suggestion and effort to process the paper. We added the page I into the CARE checklist. The title of the manuscript was changed and the word now was 11 words. We prepared the figure using PowerPoint. The reference numbers were be superscripted in square brackets as well. Finally, We provided the manuscript revision in word format for this submission.

Editorial Office Director: I have checked the comments written by the science editor. I suggest that this case report should be transferred to the World Journal of Clinical Cases.

Response: Thank you very much for your effort to process the paper. We agree to transferred this manuscript to the World Journal of Clinical Cases.

Company Editor-in-Chief: I recommend the manuscript to be published in the World Journal of Clinical Cases.

Response: Thank you very much for your thoughtful suggestion. We agree to transferred this manuscript to the World Journal of Clinical Cases.

In response to the Reviewer#1:

Reviewer #1: This is a rare case report of an adolescent girl diagnosed with autoimmune encephalitis who had both intractable diarrhea and unremitting vomiting from CMV esophago-enterocolitis. This manuscript is nicely structured and well written. I have no question about this manuscript.

Response: We would like to thank you very much for your positive and constructive comment in our case report.

Reviewer #2: This manuscript showed a case report of cytomegalovirus infection with anti-N-D-aspartate receptor encephalitis. This case is interesting, and well written. However, this paper is recommended for publication in "World J Clinical cases", not in "World J of Gastroenterology"

Response: We would like to thank you very much for your helpful and thoughtful suggestion. We We agree to transferred this manuscript to the World Journal of Clinical Cases.

Others: We added the funding and acknowledgement section. Also minor typos we detected, we edited these errors with red color in the text.
