

Statement

All ICU patients or their next of kin were given information that their data was stored in our registry for quality control and research purposes and the option to have their data deleted.