Specific Comments to Authors: I have read with interest this manuscript that concerns an important hot-topic. I find this paper original and well written, and I do believe it would be of interest to the readers of World Journal of Gastroenterology.

I wish to thank you wholeheartedly for reviewers and directors' guidance and recommendation concerning our manuscript entitled "Development of a CT-based radiomics nomogram for the prediction of transarterial chemoembolization refractoriness in hepatocellular carcinoma" (ID: 60526). Likewise, I also would like to thank with profound gratitude to the reviewers for their analysis, observations and critical remarks for our manuscript. The comments which have been forwarded to us have been very valuable and helpful for revising and refining our paper as well as being an important guiding significance to our future researches. We have meticulously studied the comments carefully and have tried to make correction which we hope will meet with WJG requirement.
