Dear reviewers and editorial staffs in World Journal of Clinical Cases

We are sincerely grateful for your thorough consideration and scrutiny of our manuscript entitled “An extremely rare case of necrotizing gastritis in a patient with autoimmune hepatitis: Case report and literature review” (control number NO: 62076). We thank the reviewers for their accurate comments. These comments have helped us better understand critical issues of our paper. Due to scrutinizing efforts of the reviewers and editors, the scientific and clinical quality of our manuscript has been improved. We have revised the manuscript according to the Reviewer's comments and suggestions. We hope that our revised manuscript is now acceptable for publication in World Journal of Clinical Cases.

Changes made for the revised manuscript are highlighted (underlined and in blue). Point-by-point responses to reviewers' comments are provided below.

Reviewer #1:

<GENERAL COMMENTS>

1) Reviewer's comment: The abstract summarizes well the case described in the manuscript. The key words reflect the real focus of the manuscript. The background adequately describes the significance of the study and it highlighted its focus well. It is a case report and Informed written consent was not necessary according to their Institutional Review Board (IRB). The manuscript interprets the findings adequately and it highlighted the key points clearly. The discussion was accurate and it discussed the paper's relevance to clinical practice well. The manuscript cited appropriately the latest references in the introduction and discussion sections. Twenty-two percent had less than 3 years. The author didn't self-cite or omit, incorrectly cite and/or over-cite references. The manuscript was well, concisely and coherently organized and its style, language and grammar were accurate and appropriate. The manuscript met the requirements of ethics and was accepted by IRB. Although this is not an experiment, the importance of this case report lies in the severity of the complication of treatment presented by the patient. it is important to report the case so that other professionals can recognize this possibility and start treatment early.

Author's response: We appreciate the reviewer's comment. We sincerely thank you for the many compliments and agreement for clinical necessity of this issue.

Editor-in-chief:

<GENERAL COMMENTS>

1) Editor-in-chief's comment: I have reviewed the Peer-Review Report, the full text of the manuscript, and the relevant ethics documents, all of which have met the basic publishing requirements of the World Journal of Clinical Cases, and the manuscript is conditionally accepted. I have sent the manuscript to the author(s) for its revision according to the Peer-Review Report, Editorial Office's comments and the Criteria for Manuscript Revision by Authors. Before final acceptance, uniform presentation should be used for figures showing the same or similar contents; for example, "Figure 1 Pathological changes of atrophic gastritis after treatment. A: ...; B: ...; C: ...; D: ...; E: ...; F: ...; G: ...".

Author's response: We appreciate the reviewer's comment. We unified presentation for figures as Figure 1A, Figure 1B, as the EIC's recommendation.
