SPECIFIC COMMENTS TO AUTHORS

The research/review was timing and interesting, the standard of the paper is acceptable and up to the mark, the work shows its originality with good presentation structure design. However, the authors were advised to consider the following comments in the article. • The current version does not contain any tables and figures but lengthy text, it is advised to add a tabular comparison of various reviewed papers in connection with various categories. • Grammatical error throughout the paper, major revision required. • Our readers will get benefitted if the period of paper reviewed in the current work is mentioned. • Advised to enlarge the research design or methodology of the paper. (a review paper should have challenges, solutions, and future directions). If possible, the coverage of each section needs enlargement with technical support. •

Finally, I really enjoy reading your valuable work
