Peking University First Hospital.

Dear Professor Zheng:

As requested by Prof. Hani El-Nezami, I have reviewed your manuscript entitled Human immune repertoire in hepatitis B virus infection. I am a native Anglophone, so I am able to state that your paper is well-written, the quality of the written English is good, and certainly of the quality required in scientific journals.

I wish you and your co-authors the best as you submit this review for publication.

Cordially,
