Dear Editor,

On behalf of my fellow-authors I am hereby submitting a revised version of our invited review entitled “COVID-19 and gastrointestinal tract: source of infection or merely target of the inflammatory process following SARS-CoV-2 infection?” Manuscript NO.: 63719, for publication in the “World Journal of Gastroenterology”

We greatly appreciate the prompt and constructive revision that our manuscript has received. The revised version of the manuscript has addressed all of the editorial reviewer's comments. We feel that the revised manuscript has greatly benefited from the insightful comments of the reviewer. Below is a point-by-point rebuttal to the reviewer suggests.

Yours sincerely,

Jacopo Troisi
