Scientific Quality: Grade C (Good)

Language Quality: Grade B (Minor language polishing)

Conclusion: Minor revision

Specific Comments to Authors: This article reviews the occurrence and development of autophagy in cholangiocarcinoma and the corresponding therapeutic treatments. The content is of enrichment. However, some of the paragraphs are too long that makes it difficult to read. And more figures should be added to make the review easier to read and understand.

Answer

We are grateful for all the suggestions made by the Reviewer. We have addressed all comments and satisfied all requests. Another paragraph and two additional subparagraphs have been added to make a fluent reading and an additional figure.
