

CERTIFICATE

To Whom It May Concern,

I, Viktor Madar-Dank (research assistant, NJCU) provided comprehensive editing services for the Manuscript entitled „Evidence based tools to improve efficiency of currently administered oncotherapies for tumors of the hepatopancreatobiliary system” by Zoltan Herold, Marcell A. Szasz & Magdolna Dank, which is under consideration for publication in World Journal of Gastrointestinal Oncology. The edit has achieved Grade A: priority publishing; no language polishing required after editing.

Should you require any additional information, please do not hesitate to contact me.
