To whom it may concern

Dear Sir, Dear Madam,

I work as a researcher / lecturer in English language at the University of Catania and also as a freelance translator and editor. In recent years I have occasionally helped prof. Giuseppe Musumeci correct the English in some of his research papers.

Herewith I can confirm that with regard to ESPS Manuscript NO: 6493, "Knee osteoarthritis. New perspectives for articular cartilage repair treatment through tissue engineering. A contemporary review" by Musumeci et al, submitted for publication in the World Journal of Orthopedics, I have read and corrected the English text.

Yours faithfully,

A handwritten signature in blue ink that reads "Iain Halliday". The signature is written in a cursive style with a long horizontal stroke at the end.

Iain Halliday
