Dear Editor

As a linguistic expert at the University of Catania, Italy, I have often been asked to correct manuscripts for publication. I have been doing this now for more than 30 years, working especially in the fields of medicine, physics, and bio-medical sciences with manuscripts published in international journals.

I hereby certify that the file listed above has been edited for English language, grammar, punctuation, and spelling. Neither the research content nor the authors' intentions were altered in any way during the editing process. This document should be English-ready for publication and of Grade A.

A copy of the above-mentioned edited file is in my possession; should any further information concerning it or the editing process be needed, please contact me by email citing the certification number.
