	The 'Core tip' provides a summary (less than 100 words) of the 14	study that outlines the most innovative and important arguments	[]/[]
14	and core contents of the paper and will serve to effectively attract	[Y] readers.
	The 'INTRODUCTION' section clearly describes the relevant background information for the study. Only the most relevant and current (within the past 5 years) literature is cited, with the exception of rare instances of seminal literature citations. All technical terms and/or abbreviations are explained and/or defined, with the full name of abbreviations given upon first appearance in 15	the text and the abbreviation presented in parentheses [i.e.,	[Y]
	"computed tomography (CT)"]. First-person pronouns (e.g., 'I',
	'we') are used appropriately to clearly indicate the work performed by the author(s). When weaknesses of previous studies are described in the text to highlight the innovations related to the current study, the information is presented carefully.
	The 'MATERIALS AND METHODS' section clearly and accurately
4.6	describes all materials and methods used to obtain the data
16	presented in the article and is adequate for a reader to repeat the	[Y] study.
	The 'RESULTS' section concisely describes the observational and experimental results. Representative data and data that have scientific significance are emphasized. Data is presented in either 17	the text, a table or figure ( i.e. , chart, diagram, graph or image), but is	[Y]
	not repeated among each. Information presented in the tables and	- - figures clearly describes the trends, meaning, and inferences.
	Results described in textual form are accurate, concise and clear.

Statistical s	ymbols are accurate. Statistical significance is expressed as ${}^{a}P < 0.05$	, ${}^{\mathrm{b}}P$ < 0.01 ( $P$ > 0.05 usually does not need to be denoted).
18 If there are	other series of $P$ values, ${}^{c}P$ < 0.05 and ${}^{d}P$ < 0.01 are used,	[Y]
and a third	series of $P$ values is expressed as $^{\rm e}P$ < 0.05 and $^{\rm f}P$ < 0.01.
Statistical d	ata is expressed as mean ± SD or mean ± SE.
The 'DISC'	USSION' section (1) describes the main purpose and hypothesis	of the study; (2) summarizes the most important results;
(3) illustrat	es and explains the results (but does not simply repeat the data) as	nd draws conclusions or inferences based on the results;
(4) points (	out the limitations of the study and their impact on the	[Y]
results, as	well as proposes further advice on future research topic(s) or	direction(s); and (5) describes the theoretical significance and practic	al value of the findings.
The 'ACKN	NOWLEDGEMENTS' section expresses gratitude to any individuals	or organizations for technical support (i.e., providing instrument	ation, equipment or experimental materials, and/or	[N] assistance i	n experimental work), non-technical services (i.e., useful inspiration,	suggestions, guidance, or review), and/or any other auxiliary w	ork.
The 'ARTI	CLE HIGHLIGHTS' section provides comments for	F2/1
21 original art	icles in accordance with the specified format.	[Y]
The 'REFE	RENCES' section lists the references in the Vancouver style. This	style uses Arabic numeral in-text citations based on the order of th	e first appearance of a source in the text. For citations where the	author's name is indicated in the text, a superscript number sho	ould be placed following the name (i.e, "Pang et al"). For	[Y] citations w	nere no author is indicated, a superscript number should be placed a	t the end of the sentence. Respective examples are: "Ma <sup>[1]</sup> reported	", "Pan et al <sup>[2-5]</sup> indicated"; "PCR has a high sensitivity <sup>[6</sup> reference number is described in the text; for example, "The experimental method used has been described in reference [8]." The style of reference citations in tables is the same as that in the text (e.g., Pan et $al^{[2-5]}$ , please see reference [8]).

	Journal references have been verified to ensure that there are no duplicate references and that the PMID numbers are correct. For references not yet included in PubMed: the name of Chinese 23	journals is spelled out using Chinese Pinyin, with the first letter of	[Y]
25	each word capitalized (e.g., Shijie Huaren Xiaohua Zazhi); the name of journals in other languages are listed according to indexing information retrieved from Google. Book references are presented with all the information relevant to the electronic version.
	The number of cited references is appropriate for the article type, as follows:
24	Commentary: no less than 50;	[Y]
21	Review: no less than 100;	[ + ]
	Article: no less than 30/26;
	Case Report and Letter to the Editor: no less than 1.
	The ethics-related statements are provided in accordance with the 25	manuscript type (e.g., Manuscript NoInstitutional review board	[N] statement, Manuscript NoAnimal care and use statement, etc.).
	The names of the peer reviewers and the scientific editor are present
26	at the end of the paper (e.g., P-Reviewer: Hugot D S-Editor: Wang	[Y]
