RE: Biostatistical Statement

To whom it may concern:

Title: Impact of intrarectal chromofungin treatment on dendritic cells-related markers in different immune compartments in colonic inflammatory conditions

MS Number: 65664

As a biostatistical and bioinformatics faculty member at the University of Manitoba and the University of Toronto, I have reviewed the statistical methods of study. I confirm that the methods applied in the study are suitable and the result interpretation is accurate.
