

Non-Native Speakers of English Editing Certificate

This is not applicable.

Both authors are native speakers of English, even though we are of Chinese ethnicity. English is our first language. In the Singapore education system from primary school to university, English is the language used. English is also our default language at work.

I am also the deputy editor of two English language journals: 1) Journal of Gastroenterology and Hepatology; 2) Singapore Medical Journal.

Yours sincerely,

Professor Tiing Leong Ang
