SPECIFIC COMMENTS TO AUTHORS

Thanks for the opportunity to review the manuscript titled "Spontaneous resolution of gallbladder hematoma in blunt traumatic injury: A case report". I have several comments as follows: 1. I cannot find the Abstract, which should include the BACKGROUND, CASE SUMMARY CONCLUSION. 2. Please check if the manuscript information is correct, including Abstract, Main Text, and Acknowledgements. 3. I would suggest the authors to discuss the condition that when we can choose the conservative treatment. The authors need to discuss their findings and the condition that when we can choose the conservative treatment, and review other authors' work. 4. I would suggest the authors to perform a literature review to the importance of this topic and what previous work has been done. Consider mentioning the limitations of some of the previous studies and how this study helps our understanding of the current state of conservative treatment for Spontaneous resolution of gallbladder hematoma in blunt traumatic injury.
