

The first author has passed the Cambridge Certificate of Proficiency (see next page) that is the highest-level qualification of all Cambridge English Qualifications (see <https://www.cambridgeenglish.org/exams-and-tests/proficiency/>). It shows that one has mastered English to an exceptional level. It proves one can communicate with the fluency and sophistication of a highly competent English speaker.

Preparing for and passing the exam means one has the level of English that's needed to study or work in a very senior professional or academic environment, for example on a postgraduate or PhD programme.

In addition, as stated in the Acknowledgement section, a native English-speaker additionally polished the English.

Thus, no professional language editing service was employed.
