SPECIFIC COMMENTS TO AUTHORS

Dear Authors, I have gone through the manuscript, which i found to be of importance in the field. I would recommend the following changes to be made in manuscript: 1. The current form of manuscript has to go through the English language edit, as i found many grammatical typos. 2. The first two paragraphs need to be removed, they provide an impression as if it is a newspaper article reporting on the issue. 3. There is a need to add a table about each and every microbe found in gut, classification, types etc .. and the association with specific disease... for the indepth coverage and benefit of readers.
