Re: English language editing

To whom it may concern,

The revised manuscript entitled “Tips and tricks for the diagnosis and management of malignant biliary stenosis. State of the art review” by Giovanna Del Vecchio Blanco, Michelangela Mossa, Edoardo Troncone, Renato Argirò, Andrea Anderloni, Alessandro Repici, Omero Alessandro Paoluzi, and Giovanni Monteleone was re-edited for proper English language, grammar, punctuation, spelling, and overall style by Catherine Fisher.

Catherine Fisher is an English-born, native English speaker with a B.A. in French Language and Literature (Bristol University, UK) and has been providing English language scientific editing services since 2004. She has edited over 100 published original scientific papers, reviews and book chapters for English language.
