YOUR PAPER IS READY FOR YOUR REVIEW!

Dear Valued Client,

We've completed your project, and it's now ready for your review. Your manuscript has been edited through a two-round editing system.

- Simply go to your dashboard and download the edited version of your manuscript (under the RESULT FILES). Your document has been returned with all edits visibly marked. All of our edits, including suggestions and comments via MS Word Track-Changes function, appear in the margins of your returned document.
- It's easy to see and follow all the suggestions and changes and to accept or reject them. You will also see some essential comments that the editor has left on the right-hand side of the page.
- Click here to see how to use the MS Word Track-Changes function. If you have any difficulty navigating the Track-Changes function, do let us know so we can give you a hand.

Feel free to contact us if you have any questions or concerns. We work around the clock to meet your deadlines. So, our team is always available to you 24/7 to make sure your questions and queries are answered promptly.
