	Editorial Office's Comments Science Editor: Scientific quality: The authors stated that they aimed to assess the efficacy and safety of percutaneous biliary stents using 125I seeds compared with conventional metal stents in patients with unresectable malignant obstructive jaundice. The topic is within the scope of the WJG. Classification: Grade C (Single reviewer) Summary of the Peer-Review Report: The reviewer stated that the review was not registered in a register for systematic review, such as PROSPERO. Reviewer stated that the search for eligible papers has to be updated. The last one was performed one year ago. Many of the results of the review are 2	based on forest plots consisting of very few studies. Reviewer stated	[Y] that I can see forest plots with 5, or even 3 or 2 studies. One cannot draw strong conclusions as the authors did with such low level of evidence. Format: There are 2 tables, 4 supplementary tables, 6 figures and 2 supplementary figures. References: A total of 31 references are cited. Fourteen references published in the last five years. The manuscript text was not prepared according to the sample format recommended by the WJG guideline. References list was not prepared according to WJG guidelines References recommendations: No any recommendation Language evaluation: Classification: Grade B Academic norms and rules:

	no data in the document) and the english language certificate (There is no data in the document) Supplementary Comments: This is an unsolicited manuscript. Re-review: Yes Recommendation: It is understood that the reviewer of this article is a dentist. And it also seems that such a complex work is evaluated in just one hour.
	Therefore, I recommend that this article be evaluated by at least two reviewers experienced in the hepatobiliary system. As a member of BPG, I see that appointing referees using the "AI Technique" method can sometimes cause errors. I think a different way should be used in this regard.
	Company Editor-in-Chief: I recommend the manuscript to be published in the World Journal of Clinical Cases.
3	The fixed headings are copied.	[Y]
	The title concisely summarizes the main topic of the study and is not too long (no more than 18 words). Words such as 'exploration', 4	'research', 'analysis', 'observation', and 'investigation' are avoided.	[Y]
	The title does not start with 'The' and does not include any Arabic numbers or uncommon abbreviations.
5	A short running title is provided (no more than 6 words).	[Y]
	The authors' full family (sur)names and full/abbreviated first 6	names are listed on the title page and are consistent with those	[Y] listed in the signed BPG Copyright License Agreement form.

7	The 'Author contributions' passage describes the specific contribution(s) made by each author. The author's names are listed in the following format: full family (sur)name followed by abbreviated first and middles names. e.g., "Wang CL and Liang L contributed equally to this work; Wang CL, Liang L, Fu JF, Zou CC, Hong F and Wu XM designed the research study; Wang CL, Zou CC, Hong F and Wu XM performed the research; Xue JZ and Lu JR contributed new reagents and analytic tools; Wang CL, Liang L and Fu JF analyzed the data; and Wang CL, Liang L and Fu JF wrote the manuscript. All authors have read and approve the final manuscript."	[Y]
8	The 'Supported by' statement describes the source(s) of financial support and includes the corresponding identification number(s) and program ID(s) if available, and contains no spelling errors.	[Y]
9	The 'Corresponding author' passage provides the corresponding author's full first and family (sur)names, abbreviated title (e.g., MD, PhD), affiliated institute's name and complete postal address (including zip code) and e-mail (written in all lowercase), and contains no spelling errors.	[Y]
10	The Manuscript Tracking information (i.e. , Received, Peer review started, First decision, Revised, Accepted, Article in press, and Published online) are provided along with the corresponding editor and date for each item, and contain no spelling errors.	[Y]
11	The Abstract section is formatted according to the article-specific style (structured vs unstructured) and word count thresholds, as follows: Commentary, Frontier, Diagnostic Advances, Medical Ethics, Minireview, Review, Therapeutics Advances, and Topic Highlight: Non-structured abstract that is no less than 200 words. Field of Vision, Case Report and Letter to the Editor:	[Y]

Research articles; Structured abstract with subsections for AIM (no more than 20 words); METHODS (no less than 80 words); RESULTS (no less than 120 words); and CONCLUSION (no more than 26 words). The 'Key words' list provides 5-10 keywords that reflect the main content of the study. The first letter of each keyword is capitalized, and each keyword is separated by a semicolon. The "citation" contains authors' names and manuscript title. The name of the first author should be typed in bold letters; the family (sur) name of all authors should be typed with the first letter capitalized, followed by their abbreviated first and middle initials. For example, an article by Jae Moon Yoon, Ki Young Son, Chun Sick Eom, Daniel Durrance, Sang Min Park will be written as Yoon JM, Son KY, Eom CS, Durrance D, Park SM. Pre-existing diabetes mellitus increases the risk of gastric cancer: A meta-analysis. World J Gastroenterol 2019; In press The 'Core tip' provides a summary (less than 100 words) of the study that outlines the most innovative and important arguments and core contents of the paper and will serve to effectively attract readers. The 'INTRODUCTION' section clearly describes the relevant background information for the study. Only the most relevant and current (within the past 5 years) literature is cited, with the exception of rare instances of seminal literature citations. All by the author(s). When weaknesses of previous studies are described in the text to highlight the innovations related to the current study, the information is presented carefully.

	The 'MATERIALS AND METHODS' section clearly and accurately
4.6	describes all materials and methods used to obtain the data
16	presented in the article and is adequate for a reader to repeat the	[Y] study.
	The 'RESULTS' section concisely describes the observational and experimental results. Representative data and data that have scientific significance are emphasized. Data is presented in either 17	the text, a table or figure (i.e., chart, diagram, graph or image), but is	[Y] not repeated among each. Information presented in the tables and figures clearly describes the trends, meaning, and inferences.
	Results described in textual form are accurate, concise and clear.
	Statistical symbols are accurate. Statistical significance is expressed as ${}^{a}P$ < 0.05, ${}^{b}P$ < 0.01 (P > 0.05 usually does not need to be denoted).
18	If there are other series of P values, $^{c}P < 0.05$ and $^{d}P < 0.01$ are used,	[Y] and a third series of P values is expressed as $^{e}P < 0.05$ and $^{f}P < 0.01$.
	Statistical data is expressed as mean \pm SD or mean \pm SE.

The 'DISCUSSION' section (1) describes the main purpose and hypothesis of the study; (2) summarizes the most important results; (3) illustrates and explains the results (but does not simply repeat the data) and draws conclusions or inferences based on the results; (4) points out the limitations of the study and their impact on the results, as well as proposes further advice on future research topic(s) or direction(s); and (5) describes the theoretical significance and practical value of the findings. The 'ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS' section expresses gratitude to any individuals or organizations for technical support (i.e., providing instrumentation, equipment or experimental materials, and/or assistance in experimental work), non-technical services (i.e., useful inspiration, suggestions, guidance, or review), and/or any other auxiliary work. The 'ARTICLE HIGHLIGHTS' section provides comments for original articles in accordance with the specified format. The 'REFERENCES' section lists the references in the Vancouver style. This style uses Arabic numeral in-text citations based on the order of the first appearance of a source in the text. For citations where the author's name is indicated in the text, a superscript number should be placed following the name (i.e., "Pang et al"). For citations where no author is indicated, a superscript number should be placed at the end of the sentence. Respective examples are: "Mal ^[1] reported,", "Pan et al ^[2-3] indicated,"; "PCR has a high sensitivity ^[6-3] ." No superscript numbers are used when the reference number is described in the text; for example, "The experimental method used has been described in reference [8]." The style of reference citations in tables is the same as that in the text (e.g., Pan et al ^[2-3] , please see reference [8]).
