SPECIFIC COMMENTS TO AUTHORS

The title and abstract of the manuscript are consistent with the content of the manuscript. The topic is within the scope of the WJCC. The figures are highly suggestive of the paper contents. The manuscript is very well organized and presented. The authors provided the CARE Checklist-2016 and written informed consent. The authors found an extremely rare case and have concisely presented the clinical and therapeutic background known to date. This clinical case is an extremely interesting and useful one for fellow clinicians because of the reduced number of cases reported so far and variety of paraclinical investigations used.
