SPECIFIC COMMENTS TO AUTHORS

Authors reported Review titled as the Mixed neuroendocrine–nonneuroendocrine neoplasms of the gastrointestinal system: an update

In fact, this entity was first reported a century ago, advances have been made with time but updated slowly.

A few questions arise:

1. Many grammar and syntax errors are found
2. It lacked of specific survival data
3. It lacked updated diagnosis including molecular, histochemistry and immunology
4. Update is insufficient
