

Non-native English Speakers editing certificate statement

The authors of the original manuscript entitled Septic Shock 3.0 criteria application in severe COVID19 patients: an unattended sepsis population with high mortality risk state that they have native English speakers in their working group, closely involved in the writing and reviewing of the main manuscript. Therefore, the authors gently request the dismissal of the non-native English editing certificate presentation.

Main Investigator

José Pedro Cidade

6th of November of 2021