This case report deserves publication. Liver herniation attributed to cough attributed to ACE-I is rare. The manuscript is well written.

SPECIFIC COMMENTS TO AUTHORS

1. A nice case demonstrated. the images are good, only I would like if the authors can provide an intraoperative picture demonstrating the diaphragmatic defect. 2. Some grammatical errors in the discussion part. 3. "ACE inhibitor associated cough is an unheard phenomenon, that may result in liver herniation" in the conclusion part seems misleading. consider rearranging the sentence 4. consider citing this article "<https://link.springer.com/article/10.1007%2Fs10353-019-0606-9>" Language Quality:* Grade B (Minor language polishing) Conclusion:* Accept (General priority) Re-Review:* Would you like to re-review the manuscript revised by the author?
